

Word Problems

Name: _____ Date: _____

- Complete the following. Show your working out on the back.

There are six groups of children in Purple Class. There are five children in each group. How many children are there altogether? _____

There are five sweets in a packet. If I buy eight packets, how many sweets will I have? _____

It takes me five minutes to iron a shirt. How long will it take me to iron nine shirts? _____

Tom found seven five pence pieces down the back of his sofa. How much money did Tom find altogether? _____

Five children can sit around a pentagonal table. How many children can sit around four pentagonal tables? _____

A bus has a five mile route. How far has it traveled after completing this route twice? _____

A television weighs five kilograms. How much will three televisions weigh? _____

A flower has five petals. How many petals will there be on five flowers? _____

Most cars have four wheels underneath and a spare one in the back. How many wheels will ten cars have? _____